

This week at Chaigeley..

25.09.2026

This week, our school community came together for another successful Macmillan Cake and a Chat Afternoon. On Friday afternoon, we were delighted to welcome parents and carers into classrooms across the school, providing a wonderful opportunity to strengthen home-school relationships while raising money for the incredible work of Macmillan Cancer Support.

Students and staff worked hard to create welcoming classroom environments, with beautifully presented cakes, creative displays, and thoughtful decorations helping to make the event a great success.

We would like to thank everyone who donated cakes, contributed decorations, attended the event, or made a monetary donation. Your generosity will make a real difference and demonstrates the caring values that are at the heart of the Chaigeley community.
